JUST RECEIVED A LARGE SHIPMENT ——— Alsen Portland Cement

Is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand. It is the most economical. "ALSEN" has NO EQUAL in COLOR, FINENESS and SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. IT WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL, measuring about 100 LBS. MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements. It is therefore an ECONOMIC cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

CAPACITY AND SALES.—The output of the "ALSEN" factories is, at the present time, larger than that of any manufacturer of Portland Cement in Europe.

The yearly sales of Alsen's Portland Cement in the United States is greater than that of any other brand. The following test made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the sea wall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows:

TENSILE STRENGTH PER SQUARE INCH.—One day, 1015 pounds; Seven days, 1015 pounds; Thirty days, 1015 pounds. For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most enduring wearing surface.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY ON ANNEXATION

'Twas Pierce, Democratic
President Who Made
First Treaty.

EXPANSION HAS ALWAYS BEEN AMERICAN POLICY

Declarations to Annex Cuba Have Been
Frequently Made—Americans
Never Shrink from Their Duty.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, August 21.—More than fifty years ago "Manifest Destiny" was the watchword of American progress. Expansion was in the air, and in fact was the very breath of the American people. From that day to this "expansion" has animated our most progressive statesmen, and we might as well attempt to stop the flow of Niagara as to try to stop the growth, grandeur, and mighty forces of America. In American veins flows the masterful blood of history—English, Scotch, Irish, German, French and Scandinavian, nation builders, all—rugged as the heather covered granite hills of the highlands, dominant on land as the English on the sea and with a love for native land as strong, deep and lasting as the German affection for the Fatherland. There has not been an hour from the moment the Pilgrim fathers landed at Plymouth to the bright May day when Dewey humbled the flag of Spain at Manila bay when Americans have not been the missionaries of liberty.

The Revolutionary war was for liberty and expansion on land; the war of 1812 was for liberty and expansion on the sea; the Mexican war was for liberty and expansion to the West and South; the Rebellion was for liberty and union everywhere, and the country is still in the morning of its history. The imperialism of the American idea gave the French people power to throw off the old regime and enter into the dominion of individual sovereignty. It has made more than half a score of Latin American Republics strung along the Andean mountain chain, every one of them children of American thought and of American example and still sheltered under the strong arm of American protection. America never consulted with cowardice, or took counsel with the fearful. She rejoices as a strong man to run a race, and cares not how hard the task may be providing it be just.

The Republican policy which so long has guided the destiny of republican America has been just and generous, opening the door of opportunity to all, opening markets that looms may spin, furnaces blaze, chimneys smoke, trains fly and ships sail, making work, maintaining wages and paying honest toil and American skill the highest wages in the best money in the world.

The Republican party stands for the imperialism of opportunity, the dominion of achievement, the kingdom of manly labor, royal remuneration for loyal service. If this be imperialism let the enemies of the Republic make the most of it. The party which freed the black man, gave work to the white man does not hesitate to go before the sovereign voters of the country and ask for endorsement.

President McKinley has been true to the traditions and instincts of the American people. He has continued the policy which Jefferson inaugurated, which Monroe continued, which Seward advanced, which Grant promoted, which Harrison championed and which the growth of the Republic demanded. A policy which Cleveland could not change, for Porto Rico is ours, the gate of Asia is ours to the glory of America and for the good of the natives who find shelter and protection under the spotless folds of our flag. This is the record and loyal Americans glory in it. The Republican party is not apostate to the spirit of the race, nor will it check the restless march of liberty and free institutions.

Are the Americans of today the degenerate sons of noble sires? Our fathers carried the flag from the Alleghenies to the Pacific, from Kentucky to the Gulf, from the Golden Gate to the frozen North, and with every advance the prophets of evil predicted the fall of the Republic. But the Republic grew in size, in strength and virtue. And there is something more beyond. There is more freedom to give, more schoolhouses to build, more truth to preach, more oceans to whiten with American commerce, more tasks to dare, and all the pessimism represented by Tammany Hall, the Solid South, the anarchy of Chicago and the sophistry
